

Retirement Plans for the Self-Employed

Table of Contents

- I. A Few Basics:
 - A. Plans must be written & communicated
 - B. “Adjusted Net Compensation”
 - C. When is 25% Not 25%
 - D. Qualified Plan vs IRA Plans
 - E. Defined Contributions Plans
 - F. Defined Benefit Plan
- II. Plans We Will Look Into
- III. Factors To Consider
 - A. How much can I put away for myself?
 - B. How much do I have to put away for my employees?
 - C. Which of my employees MUST I cover?
 - D. Can employees contribute?
 - E. When does the plan need to be set up?
 - F. When does the money have to be deposited?
 - G. May we borrow from the plan?
 - H. Vesting
 - I. Other
- IV. Let’s compare the plans
 - A. IRA / ROTH
 - B. Simplified Employee Pension (SEP)
 - C. Solo 401(k)
(A profit sharing plan with 401(k) elective deferral option)
 - D. Defined Benefit Plan
- V. Appendix
 - A. Annual census
 - B. Pension plan setup credit.
 - C. Form 5500
 - D. Checking the “Retirement Plan” box on the W-2
 - E. Early withdrawal penalty
 - F. Standard vesting schedules
 - G. Borrowing from your qualified plan.
 - H. Elective deferral limits (aggregate)